PRESIDENT IN PARADE

Which Escorts Bodies of Marines Killed at Vera Cruz, From Battery Park to Brooklyn Navy Yard—Impressive Ceremonies...

(Associated Press Telegram) New York, May 11.—The men of the navy who died in the occupation of Vera Cruz, the city, state and the nation paid tribute today in a demonstration chiefly remarkable for its silence and solemnity. For four miles through the city streets the funeral cortege passed, and behind it in an open carriage rode the president. He sat for the most part with his head bared, though the May sun beat down upon him and the mercury climbed above seventy.

Perhaps a million people saw the seventeen coffins, each on a caisson, borne from the Battery plaza in Lower Manhattan to the Navy Yard in Brooklyn. The procession was nearly two hours in passing. Such was the feeling of the thousands that a silence at times, was oppressive. There were a few sporadic outbursts of applause as the President's carriage passed but these were quickly hushed. At Dey street came the first short burst of applause. It was started by a girl on the sidewalk who clapped her hands, doubtless from sheer nervousness.

Though there were but seventeen of the dead in the procession, Secretary of the Navy Daniels made it plain that the ceremonies were for all who had died at Vera Cruz—not only the seventeen whose bodies were brought up by the cruiser Montana but also for Laurence Harshberger and Henry Pulliam, who have died since.

The religious ceremony at the navy yard was more impressive, if possible, than was the sight of the slow moving cortege.

"I was never in a battle or under fire," said President Wilson in his brief address, "but I fancy it is just as hard to do your duty when men are sneering at you for when they shoot at you they take your natural life and when they sneer at you they wound your heart."

"We have gone to Mexico," he said, "in another part of his address, 'to serve mankind, if we can find the way. We don't want to fight the Mexicans; we want to serve them.'"

"A war of aggression is not a thing in which it is proud to die, but a war of service is a war in which it is a proud thing to die." Throughout the procession mounted police closely surrounded the President in a hollow square, a secret service man rode on the box with a gray haired coachman, and others marched behind and beside the vehicle. Seated in the carriage with Mr. Wilson were Secretary Tamm and his physician and naval aide Dr. Cary T. Grayson. At the City Hall where the cortege halted while Mayor Mitchell placed the city's wreath on a coffin and delivered a short speech, the mayor stepped through the crowd and entered the President's carriage. He rode with him to the navy yard.

At the procession passed the party completed Equitable structure on lower Broadway a strange sight met the President's gaze.

Above him, tier upon tier were seated more than a thousand workmen in their overalls. With the ease that their calling brings, they bestrode beams and girders high above the sidewalk and from their point of vantage they looked down upon the passing cortege. Many waved their hands, and the president looked up, lifted his hat, and smiled.

(Associated Press Telegram) New York, May 11.—The dead from Vera Cruz were landed on American soil today, and city, state and nation paid their tribute. Two hours before the city was astir seventeen flag draped coffins were removed from the boat deck of the armored cruiser Montana and placed on the caissons on the plaza in Battery Park. Few witnessed this ceremony, for the sun was but half risen, but thousands later lined the streets to watch the slow procession wind its way to the navy yard. Perhaps not since the Dewey parade has there been such a spontaneous demonstration. That, however, was a noisy tribute to a returning victor; this a reverent one to the returning dead.

The weather for the occasion could not have been better. The sky was almost cloudless, and there was just enough breeze to stiffen, aloft and ashore, the thousands of flags which flew at half mast.

Silent thousands long before eight o'clock began making their way toward lower Manhattan; there lined the approaches to the Manhattan Bridge, and finally a great throng gathered at the Navy Yard where eulogies were to be said. Many wore little bows of black, others wore bands of black upon their sleeves.

President Wilson arrived in the city from Washington shortly before seven o'clock, almost unobserved. He took no part in the procession, but was taken immediately to the home of his close friend, Col. E. M. House, thence to the navy yard. By the time he had breakfasted, the hero-dead were upon the gun caissons, police had lined the way and the procession was ready to move.

Twenty-four picked mounted police led the way. Behind them were the combined bands of the dreadnaughts Wyoming and Texas, and behind the bands, 600 bluejackets from these ships.

Next came the coffins, in single file. At the side of each rode a policeman, and at the corner of each caisson trudged a national guardsman. The Stars and Stripes alone covered the caskets.

Behind the last caisson came the carriages bearing the secretary of the navy, senators, congressmen and representatives of the state and city. Never had the Battery witnessed such a scene as today's. Noiseless tugs nosed up to Pier A. and with a precision that is the navy's, the seventeen dead were landed, grouped on the caissons. Immediately the bluejackets who were to march began to assemble. The men from the Texas came by tug from the navy yard whence their ship was to sail later in the day for Mexican waters. The Wyoming's men came ashore in their own boats. It was the Wyoming that conveyed the funeral ship into the harbor yesterday, and all night long, outlined in lights, she swung its anchor 300 yards ahead of the Montana's bow.

The cortege began to move at 9 o'clock, the ship's bands playing a funeral march; bluejackets with arms reversed. The crowd stood with bared heads, silent. Through the skyscraper canon of lower Broadway, past Old Trinity church (Continued on page 16, col. 3)

STATE READY FOR TRIAL OF WM. KIRKBY

ONLY A FEW WITNESSES, INCLUDING EX-GOVERNOR HARRIS, WILL TESTIFY.

Augustus T. Seymour, Well Known in Newark, Represents Counsel for Defendant.

(Associated Press Telegram) Columbus, May 11.—Arrangements seemed complete early today for entering upon the trial of William Kirkby of Toledo, former member of the Ohio railroad commission and so-called "legislative lobbyist," on a charge of attempted bribery. It was said that the prosecution planned to call only a few witnesses, one of whom it was supposed would be former Representative George B. Nye, of Pike county, on whose testimony before the grand jury, it is alleged, the indictment against Kirkby was returned some months ago. It was alleged that Kirkby, who was the legislative representative of railroad and traction interests, sought Nye's vote on certain measures and that he promised to make Nye the agent of these interests in buying railroad ties. The case will be tried before Judge Frank Rathmell in the criminal division of Common Pleas court.

Among the witnesses summoned are Andrew L. Harris, of Eaton, former governor of Ohio; William H. Incubur, of Toledo, and C. Burckmeyer, purchasing agent of the Ohio Traction company. Attorney General T. S. Hogan and Assistant Prosecutors Price and King will represent the state. Augustus T. Seymour, formerly of Newark, will act as counsel for Kirkby.

With all preliminaries out of the way the selection of a jury was the next point of procedure. It was expected this would consume a considerable part of the day.

BECKER JURY IS COMPLETED; TRIAL STARTS

(Associated Press Telegram) New York, May 11.—A jury to try Charles S. Becker, former lieutenant of police, charged with instigating the murder of Herman Rosenthal, the gambler, was again completed today. Frederick A. Strook, bookkeeper and Frederick C. Barrett, a consulting engineer, were the men chosen today to take the place of men excused Saturday.

It was noon when District Attorney Whitman began his opening presentation of the state's case to the jury. Mr. Whitman, in his address, made no mention of the execution of the death sentence on the four gunmen, and in no way suggested that the prosecution had any new evidence to present. It is understood that whatever new evidence the state does introduce will be held as a surprise. His speech, on the whole, was without bitterness, and was chiefly a review of the events leading up to and following the murder.

NEWARK MAN MEETS DEATH AT CANTON, O.

Killed in Railway Yards of the Wheeling & Lake Erie—Former B. & O. Switchman.

Word was received by Mrs. Mary Madigan, of 15 South Arch street, Sunday morning from officials of the Wheeling & Lake Erie railroad at Canton, that her brother William Murphy had been killed in the railroad yards at that place, Sunday morning, his body being badly mangled. He was said to be with a Columbus companion named Patrick Welsh but further particulars of the manner of death were not given. The deceased was a son of William Murphy, a former resident of Newark, who now resides with his daughter, Mrs. John Baringer in Toledo. He leaves a brother, John Murphy, who is an employee of the Overland Automobile company at Toledo.

The unfortunate man while in Newark had worked for the B. & O. but has not been here for about fifteen years, and working on railroads in different parts of the country at various times. He visited his sister, Mrs. Madigan about two months ago and stayed a couple of weeks, leaving Newark for Marvsville, where he secured a job of switching. Soon after he took up the Marvsville position, he wrote his sister that he expected to be transferred shortly so that she might infer that he was working at Canton when he met his death. He was 33 years of age and unmarried. His Newark sister notified the Toledo relatives of his death and it is probable that the body will be brought to Newark for interment in the family burial plot in Mt. Calvary.

Gen. Huerta Protests to the South American Envoys Who Are Endeavoring To Pave Way to Peace In the Southern Republic

THINK SEIZURE NECESSARY TO SAFEGUARD SHIPPING

Party Said to Have Landed From American Torpedo Boats and After Securing Apparatus for Operation of Strategic Beacon Released the Keepers—Thought Light Had Been Threatened—Admiral Howard Reported That Huerta Had Ordered Suspension of Lights so as to Impede Navigation by American Ships—Names of American Delegates for Conference at Niagara Falls Announced by Secy. Bryan.

(Associated Press Telegram) Washington, May 11.—The navy department today called upon Rear Admiral Badger for a complete report concerning an official statement that an American force had landed on Lobos Island, eight miles from the Mexican shore between Vera Cruz and Tampico and had taken possession of the lighthouse there.

Huerta's protest over the reported seizure of Lobos Island—an important lighthouse point off the eastern coast of Mexico—by a landing party from United States torpedo boats, was taken up today by the south American envoys who are seeking to pave the way to peace in the Southern Republic. The reported occupation of the island—probably to assure uninterrupted operation of the lighthouse—first was revealed in a telegram from foreign minister Ruize to the mediators. It stated a party had been landed from the American torpedo boats, that the light keepers had been arrested then released, after they had turned over apparatus for operation of the strategic beacon. The mediators were asked to make representations to the Washington government relative to its truce with Huerta.

The Ruiz (cq) note was considered in detail, when the envoys resumed their sessions at the Argentine legation early today. Already, it was believed, a reply to the note had been made in some quarters the conviction was expressed that Ambassador Dagama had taken it up at a White House meeting Sunday.

Information was obtainable neither from the mediators for the White House concerning the Ruiz despatch. However, it was believed that it would be contended that the seizure was in the nature of a precautionary measure to safeguard shipping. As such, it was asserted, it would be without any significance as territorial aggression, and would not justify any accusation of a breaking of the truce.

Reported occupation of Lobos, it was believed in Washington today was probably brought about after its light was threatened. Admiral Howard had reported that Huerta had ordered the suspension of lights on the Pacific seaboard so as to impede navigation by American ships and the same order was said to have been issued for beacons on the Atlantic coast. Admiral Howard further reported that the constitutionalists artillery at San Pedras island drove the Mexican transport Korrgan out of the harbor. Skirmishing between federalists and constitutionalists at Mazatlan continues. All Americans are reported safe in the Cuiclan district. The Paul Jones has arrived at Mazatlan and the Stewart at San Blas.

The yacht Iola has been towed from Guyma to La Paz by the Cleveland. The Iola is the yacht on which Arthur Payne, a wealthy young man of Menlo Park, Calif., started for Guyma. It was two weeks overdue at Guyma and had been reported captured by Mexican revolutionists.

With other details of their plans for the Niagara Falls conference completed by the appointment of the American mission, the south American envoys had hoped today speedily to dispose of the latest incident in their negotiations. Names of the American delegates—associate justice Lamar of the Supreme court and former solicitor General Lehmann—were announced soon after the receipt of dispatches from Vera Cruz telling of the arrival there of Huerta's representatives. That they declined to accept the courtesy of transportation to the United States on the government steamer Morro Castle, excited no surprise here and was declared to have no significance. They had previously arranged to sail on the Kronprinzessin Cecilie. That vessel left Vera Cruz for Havana today on its way to Key West where the delegates will disembark for their trip to Niagara Falls by way of Washington.

The reported Lobos seizure as an incident in latest developments in the Mexican situation, were not more eagerly discussed today than results of the renewed rebel attack on Tampico. Capture of that port by the constitutionalists, it was considered might relieve the danger of destruction to foreign property there through prolonged fighting. Early reports today stated that one of the most bitter battles of the Carranza rebellion was in progress. The constitutionalists had been reinforced with men and artillery and determined to bring their siege to an end. The menace of Zapata, overlooked in recent developments in the international drama, arose again today with the receipt of sinister reports that the chief of the southern insurgents had sent threatening messages to several men and women in Mexico City. There was possibility that the sudden overthrow of the Huerta regime through a revolt might lead loose upon Mexico City a horde of Zapata's men, caused apprehension for the fate of the five thousand or more foreigners there. How many of them could be moved in a hurry if a crisis were precipitated has been seriously considered.

Dispatches from Vera Cruz, however, stated that the general opinion among refugees there was that only a few more Americans would avail themselves of the chance to leave Huerta's capital. It is estimated that between 500 and 600 remain there. Apparently, it is said, they do not fear serious disturbances and some of them have taken issue with the efforts of United States officials to get them to leave.

Despite the absence of President Wilson and Secretary Daniels who were in New York today at the memorial services for the Americans killed in the occupation of Vera Cruz, the war and navy departments continued working out their precautionary plans. Secretary Garrison remained in Washington, carefully watching the day's developments. Reports from Brig. Gen. Funston declared that there was no truth in rumored statements of Huerta's war minister that the truce had been broken at Vera Cruz by the extension of American lines. While a slight enlarging of the American territory there would be advantageous for maintaining sources of food supplies yet great care, General Funston reported, had been taken not to overstep orders from Washington.

PRESIDENT WILSON NAMES DELEGATES
(Associated Press Telegram) Washington, May 11.—Associate Justice Joseph Rucker Lamar of the United States Supreme court and Frederick W. Lehmann, of St. Louis, former solicitor general, have been selected by the President to represent his views before the South American mediators in the Mexican mediation negotiations at Niagara Falls, Canada. Secretary Bryan made this official announcement today.

Whether a third representative would be appointed Mr. Bryan declined to indicate, stating that could be assumed that there would be no other, although he did not wish to definitely indicate that such possibility was foreclosed.

REBELS BLOW UP MEXICAN GUNBOAT
Washington, May 11.—Rear Admiral Howard, commander of the Pacific fleet reported today that the abandoned Mexican federal gunboat Marelos was yesterday hoisted, set fire to, and blown up by the constitutionalists at Mazatlan.

Contest Editor's Query Column

The Advocate will be glad to answer all legitimate questions regarding the contest through the Contest Editor's query column. Questions may be sent by mail or telephone but the answers will be printed in this column so that no contestant will have any advantage over another.

Telephone—Send in no solutions before May 19. All answers must be submitted by May 30.

Contestant—The earliest you order your extra coupons the better. We were very busy Saturday. Coupons will be sold up to 6 p. m. next Monday, May 18.

Telephone—Don't worry about the candlestick in No. 24 and it doesn't matter whether the old lady is asleep or awake.

A. B. D.—We don't know whether the man in No. 33 is a preacher or an undertaker. He may be neither.

D. C. M.—You ask if one who sends in 70 coupons will have as good a show as one who sends in a larger number. If one who sends in 70 has every one right he will have a "perfect score" but we believe he will have to "go some" to get all the solutions right if only one coupon for each picture is submitted. The rules provide that one may send in 5 or less answers to each picture on separate coupons so it stands to reason that the more chances one has the better will be the fare. In other words each person has 5 chances, if he wants them, at each picture. Isn't that better than one chance? Those who have been successful in similar contests will tell you that they will submit several answers for many of the pictures.

Inquirer—if you can see a date "Nov. 4" in picture 37 your eyes are better than ours. Anyway, these pictures aren't "puzzle" pictures. You are not supposed to look at them upside down or to hunt for an obscure detail.

X. Y. Z.—All of the trees in picture 23 are supposed to be pines.

C. A. L.—That's supposed to be a pile of straw in picture 42. Don't bother about the auto number in picture 43.

Several Inquirers—Picture 48—Geese, geese, no ducks.

Contestant—The ground in picture No. 22 is certainly slippery.

P. L. P.—The boy in picture 50 is selling newspapers. The older one has fruit, etc. for sale.

Inquirer—Can't say what bush or flowers appear in No. 53. The letters on the bench cut no figure.

H. I. Granville—Bulletin board in picture 24 reads "15 p. m."

Subscriber—In picture No. 4 the man is holding a flower in his right hand. These pictures are not "puzzle" pictures. What does the picture itself represent?

P. B.—Can't tell you what kind of a bird is pictured in No. 9. What does the picture represent?

C. O. D.—The child in picture 7 appears to be attired in its "nightie."

North End—The lettering is small in picture No. 69. It reads "stove polish."

Inquirer—You ask: "Does the bar of music have anything to do with the answer to No. 69?" You see the piano and the music is a conspicuous part of the picture.

P. R. G.—We have several times said that the man near the head of the bed in No. 13 holds a thermometer, but are glad to answer your question.

Mrs. C. V. B. Columbus—There are typographical mistakes in the catalogue. If you follow the catalogue these mistakes in the book will not be counted against you.

Inquirer—It will be necessary in writing your address to name your city. For instance if you should write No.—Main street, how are

The judges to know whether it means Main street in Newark, Columbus, Zanesville or some other town in the contest territory?

R. O. M.—The person on the pole in No. 17 is a boy and the three in the foreground are also boys.

Subscriber—If you haven't room in the space provided to write all you desire to write you may abbreviate but we believe if you write carefully the space provided will be sufficient.

A. C. D.—Picture No. 6 shows a squaw seated near a tent by a fire with four Indians on horseback.

Telephone—You ask whether the woman in picture 59 is a nurse? This picture must speak for itself. No, the woman is not asleep.

Granville—We have limited the time for selling coupons because it has in other similar contests, been customary to do so and also because we want to give contestants plenty of time to fill out their coupons after they secure them. You still have until May 13 to get what coupons you need and if you order now the coupons will be mailed promptly.

Reynoldsburg—Sorry your answer was delayed. We can not promise to answer the day your letter is received but shall do the best we can. We have today filled all orders received up to Saturday night and shall fill your order today.

D. F. P.—Everybody pays 2 cents each for coupons now. Catalogues are 25 cents, binders 15 cents, postage 2 cents. We have no "charge" accounts in this contest. We do not send coupons by the carrier boys but will send them by mail upon receipt of remittances.

R. A. D.—In ordering coupons kindly use the blank form at the top of page 2, Column 1.

Emily—You have seven more days in which to obtain coupons and then until May 30 to submit your answers. This is plenty of time if you will get busy now. A great many people are starting in the contest now and as your friends are familiar with the pictures they will gladly help you.

Zanesville—No local features are contained in any of the pictures that are to the disadvantage of any contestant outside of Newark.

Coshocton—Unless the picture itself shows you that a certain proper name is in the answer don't put it there. This is in every sense a fair contest.

Granville—You may send in not less than 70 coupons nor more than 350. Your answers must be in one package but others in your family may submit solutions if they wish. Of course the one who submits the greater number of coupons has a greater chance of getting 70 right but the one who gets the most correct answers in the fewest number of coupons stands first. The rules printed daily in the contest explain fully.

East Side—Dr. W. G. Corne and W. J. Eade had a perfect right to publish in leaflet form their "probable answers." They gave time and thought to their solutions but it is foolish to ask if they are in any way connected with the Advocate. Let us say once more that neither Dr. Corne nor Mr. Eade knows a single answer to the pictures. We do not mean that none of their solutions are correct but simply mean that they are publishing what appears to them to be the best answers. You might do the same thing they have done if you wanted to. To answer you and numerous others will say that they are both now selling their lists of probable answers at 50 cents each.

D. M. C.—Instructions to the artist did not specify any particular kind of tree for picture No. 70.

Inquirer—Answering your question will suggest that you do not take any little insignificant feature of the picture but the chief feature or the picture is a whole. It doesn't take a magnifying glass to read the answers to the Advocate pictures.

Several Inquirers—We do not know how many solutions will be submitted but we are sure the number will be large that we can not promise to return the pictures to contestants. As all the pictures will be reprinted with the correct answers beginning June 1 at the rate of about 10 daily you will in that way be able to obtain a complete set.

Mrs. J. M. R.—Columbus—The woman in picture 65 appears to be wearing a crown. Don't bother about what the man in No. 4 holds in his left hand.

Sol G. Columbus—"Friends on the Shelf-Bradford Torrey" is near the bottom of page 11 of the catalogue.

Severe Bronchial Cough

Doctors Feared Lung Trouble, Restored to Health by Vinol.

The medical profession does not believe that lung troubles are inherited, but a person may inherit a weakness or tendency to them.

Mrs. Kate Heckman, Springfield, Ohio, says: "A few years ago I was in a very bad run-down condition, and the physician told me I had consumption. I tried another physician, and he told me I had ulcers on my right lung. I quit the physicians and started on 'Vinol.' Today I am perfectly healthy, and that is why I recommend 'Vinol.'"

Vinol soothes and heals the inflamed surfaces and allays the cough. Vinol creates an appetite, strengthens the digestive organs and gives the patient strength to throw off incipient pulmonary diseases.

"MOTHERS' DAY" WAS GENERALLY OBSERVED HERE

In contrast to all indications of Saturday night, and the early hours of Sunday morning, the sun came out and by nine o'clock there was a balminess in the air that suggested real spring, and the day proved to be one of the very few really enjoyable ones we have had so far this year.

A special significance was added by the fact that President Wilson had officially designated May 10 as "Mother's Day."

Beautiful sentiment, dominant in every breast, became actively potent in creating a desire to get out of doors and mingle with works of the Creator, thereby breathing an inspiration from the very atmosphere, toward higher thoughts and better living.

In all the churches the mother sentiment was a theme of pulpit discourses, and in some special programs were carried out and a better than usual attendance was noticed in each of the houses of worship.

Those who could not avail themselves of automobile, motorcycle or other private means of locomotion, took advantage of interurban street cars for Buckeye Lake, or some country resort where they could go and quietly commune with nature.

In her visible form, "the city, recreation was sought by those who did not get away from town by attending baseball games in various sections, going around the golf links at the Country Club, or taking in the special offerings at the picture shows, which did a thriving afternoon and evening business.

Altogether Sunday was a delightful day, enjoyably spent, and every one should and probably does feel mentally and physically recuperated for the week's regular routine of work.

SECRETS OF LONDON COMPLEXION DOCTORS.

Famous London specialists who cater to titled ladies and others of social prominence employ remarkable method of complexion rejuvenation. One undergoing this treatment visits the beauty doctor late in the afternoon, has something dabbed over her face, then, heavily veiled, departs in her motor car. This is repeated daily for a week or so, when a complexion of snowy purity and exquisite delicacy is the result.

The secret of this method is—ordinary mercurized wax. Anyone can apply the wax without assistance of a nurse. A ounce of it costs very little at any druggist (obtainable here as well as in England). It is used like cold cream, before retiring, and washed off mornings. Its success is due to a peculiar absorbent property which gradually removes without particles of cuticle, revealing the younger, healthier skin beneath.

A wonderful wrinkle-chaser, also in vogue among Englishwomen is prepared by dissolving 1 oz. powdered saffron in 4 oz. hot water, and used as a lotion, this completely and quickly effaces even the deepest lines.

ALL WRONG

The Mistake Is Made by Many Newark Citizens.

Look for the cause of backache. To be cured you must know the cause.

If it's weak kidneys, you must set the kidneys working right.

A Newark resident tells you how. Andrew J. Powell, machinist, 43 Union street, Newark, Ohio, says: "I had rheumatic pains in the small of my back and my kidneys acted irregularly, especially at night. I couldn't sleep well and often had to get up as many as fifteen times. The kidney secretions were unnatural, and I felt badly in every way. I used different medicines, but nothing helped me until I tried Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from A. F. Crayton & Co.'s Drug Store. After I had taken four boxes, I felt better. My kidneys were strengthened and I didn't have to get up at night. The pains also left."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Powell had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props, Buffalo, N. Y. 48

TURN HAIR DARK WITH SAGE TEA

Grandma kept her locks dark, glossy and thick with a simple mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's treatment, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we won't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy" for about 50 cents a bottle. It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and the hair is as black as the hair which Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive; besides, prevents dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair. ## FULL MOON WAS RESPONSIBLE FOR THE FIRE ALARM

The brilliance of Sunday night's full moon resulted in a general fire alarm which called every piece of fire apparatus in the city to the B. and O. shops at 8:25 o'clock. The fact that box No. 12 was sounded a few minutes after the East Newark company had turned in an alarm from the house box, led many to believe that there was a serious fire at the shops. The East Newark company was notified by telephone that a fire was burning in the east end of the shops. That company and the ladder company from headquarters responded to the alarm.

Fire Chief Bausch from headquarters started to locate the blaze and when he called the B. and O. shop by telephone, someone there told him that there was a fire in the shop. Not being sure that the East Newark company had responded to that alarm, the chief "played it safe" and sounded box No. 12 on the transmitter at headquarters.

The first fright was caused when some one at the shop noticed the bright rays of the moon, before the orb was visible above the roofs of the shop buildings.

The engineer at the water plant said he had ample pressure for any ordinary fire but declared he wouldn't have been able to give a strong enough pressure to send a stream to the moon, even by the use of the new turret nozzle recently installed.

Another argument in favor of discontinuing the use of the big bell in the headquarters tower was found Sunday night when the trucks which responded to the alarm were entirely surrounded by automobiles, rigs, bicycles and pedestrians. Had there been a fire of any consequence, it would have been almost impossible to handle the apparatus in the crowd. As it was, it was difficult for the drivers to get their teams through the crowded streets.

It is understood that Safety Director Carl S. Dayton is considering the advisability of abandoning the big bell and rely upon the telephone to notify the men who are off duty because of meal hours or other causes.

CARRIE GETS A SENTENCE IN THE WORKHOUSE

Carrie Myers, who for several years has been a regular in police court, drew a fine of $20 and costs Monday morning on a charge of disorderly conduct. "Send me over on the first train," was Carrie's only comment. Mayor Bigbee had intended to suspend the sentence but the woman spoke too soon and he allowed the sentence to stand. She is the second Newark woman to draw a workhouse sentence in police court here.

Six drunks drew fines of $5 and costs, most of which were suspended on condition of good behavior. One case in which a husband was charged with abusing his wife, was continued until Monday afternoon.

REINDEER TO GIVE GRAND CARNIVAL ALL NEXT WEEK

Mack's Combined Shows Have Been Secured by Local Lodge to Give Entertainment.

Next week will be "Carnival Week" in Newark, and of course this means that everybody will have a gay time from evening to evening at the Jefferson street grounds, when Mack's United Shows will hold forth under the auspices of the local lodge of Reindeer. This carnival company is considered one of the highest class now exhibiting, and last week showed in Marion with great success. That it gave general satisfaction can be gathered from the account of the opening given in the Marion Star which prints:

"The carnival being held at the fair grounds under the auspices of the Moose lodge," was running full blast Wednesday night. The carnival is the best that has been seen here in years.

"Buckskin Ben carries a troupe of thirty-eight persons and his own band, and is a feature of the carnival. * * * The motordome was well patronized, the patrons being thrilled by the dare-devil exhibitions of two riders. The Palace of Mystery drew good crowds and the patrons were greatly pleased. The jungle show, the museum of anatomy, Indian mummies, Sultan's favorite, and deep sea exhibit, all deserved the patronage they received.

"In connection with these attractions there are merry-go-round, shooting gallery, baby and cane racks, gypsy fortune-tellers, striking machines, Ferris wheel, and everything that goes to make a carnival complete. As an open-air feature the Maxwells do a trapeze act that is well worth a visit to the grounds."

Ready Vuca of Knox county was arrested on a charge of using dynamite in a stream near Mt. Vernon.

TO REORGANIZE SUNDAY CREEK COAL COMPANY

JOHN S. JONES, OF GRANVILLE, MILLIONAIRE CAPITALIST, HEAD OF SYNDICATE.

Sale Follows Federal Order of Dissolution Directed Against Hocking Valley Railroad.

John S. Jones, a prominent capitalist, formerly of Granville, where he owns a large estate, but whose business connections are almost exclusively in Chicago, is to be at the head of a syndicate that will purchase the interests of the Sunday Creek Coal company, one of the biggest coal mining companies in the United States, owning lands estimated at $9,000 acres in West Virginia. The company has been for many years a controlling factor in the coal producing business in Ohio and in West Virginia. It is a New Jersey corporation, capitalized for $4,000,000 and said to be worth every cent of it.

The motive for the sale doubtless came from an order from the federal court in Cincinnati, directing that there be a divorce at once of the Hocking Valley railroad company from its coal mining interests. The order of the court gave 60 days in which this must be done, and that time will expire before the end of another week. For this reason it is practically certain that the pending sale will be made.

The report of the sale comes as a great surprise to all in coal mining circles. It is believed that the recent legislation regarding the wages of miners has played a prominent part in determining the owners of the property to part with it.

Coming just now when negotiations are in progress between the miners and their employers regarding the wage question for the ensuing year, the shifting of the ownership of this extensive coal mining company may affect those negotiations.

The price to be paid is said to be $4,000,000, the par value of the capitalization.

Unidentified Man Killed by B. & O. Saturday Evening

An unknown man, supposed to be Tom O'Brian, was killed by B. & O. passenger train No. 12 near Mansfield at 5:30 o'clock Saturday evening. In his pocket was a pay envelope with the name "Tom O'Brian" on the outside. There was nothing else about him that could lead to identification.

It is said that he was sitting on the track and when the engineer signalled he did not move. The body was taken to Bellville and placed at the disposition of the coroner.

A large force of men is employed daily at Buckeye Lake Park and work on the improvements is being pushed with all possible speed in an effort to get the park ready for the summer opening on Sunday, May 24. Manager Will D. Harris is personally supervising the work which when completed will give him one of the best amusement parks in this part of the country. In addition to enlarging the dance hall he is building a cabaret and will install a high-class orchestra and has engaged demonstrators direct from the New York cabarets.

YOUNG MEN LIABLE TO PROSECUTION ON A SERIOUS CHARGE

As a sequel to the case of the quartet of girls, charged with delinquency, who were before Judge Hunter in the juvenile court Saturday, two well-known Newark young men, whom the girls claimed took them to a Newark rooming house on last Monday night, were severely lectured by Judge Hunter Monday morning. The two girls who were taken to the rooming house were under age. The two young men were liable to prosecution on a very serious charge.

Judge Hunter said, "this case should serve as a warning to young men, as any one guilty of contributing to the delinquency of minor girls may be subjected to a jail sentence."

Mamie Hagerman, whose case was rested over from Saturday, one of the above mentioned quartet of girls, was given a suspended sentence to the Girls' Industrial Home at Delaware by the court Monday morning.

INVITE PARENTS TO VISIT NEWARK PUBLIC SCHOOLS

This is Patrons' Week in the Newark public schools. Invitations have been sent into every home having children in the schools. The invitations are signed by the members of the Board of Education and the Superintendent of Schools and read as follows:

"The Newark Board of Education and teachers invite you and all other citizens interested in the education of Newark's children to visit the schools sometime during the week beginning May 11th. A cordial welcome from teachers and an unspoken but none the less hearty greeting from children are assured. No more formality is involved than stepping into your own house. You will be welcome at any hour of the day. There are no special programs but the usual work of the schools will be seen."

Patrons' Week in the schools was inaugurated for the first time last year. At that time 1210 visits were made to the various school rooms by interested citizens. The Board of Education has taken this method to bring the schools and the community closer together. The members of the Board of Education hope that every parent or other interested citizen may spend a part of a day at least visiting the schools this week. On Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the High school auditorium, a chorus consisting of three hundred high school pupils, under the direction of Prof. Klopp, will give "Heroes of '76." No admission will be charged.

OPEN MEETING OF DIRECTORS OF THE Y. M. C. A.

The Y. M. C. A. directors have extended an invitation to all contributors and members to attend the annual business meeting of the association to be held in Taylor Hall, Thursday evening May 14th, at 7:30 o'clock. Reports of last year work and a discussion of plans for this year will be the order of business. There will be no solicitation of funds.

IMPROVEMENTS ARE BEING RUSHED AT BUCKEYE LAKE

A large force of men is employed daily at Buckeye Lake Park and work on the improvements is being pushed with all possible speed in an effort to get the park ready for the summer opening on Sunday, May 24. Manager Will D. Harris is personally supervising the work which when completed will give him one of the best amusement parks in this part of the country. In addition to enlarging the dance hall he is building a cabaret and will install a high-class orchestra and has engaged demonstrators direct from the New York cabarets.

The Glass dancing pavilion will be ready for the opening. It is built out onto the lake for a distance of 150 feet and should be a cool and delightful spot during the hot summer evenings. Other improvements are also being made about the Glass Hotel and along the water front in the near vicinity.

The Ohio Electric has not yet announced its summer schedule but it will possibly be ready within the next week or ten days.

Republican Organization Vs. Democratic Machine

In politics the "outs" are always an Organization while the "ins" are always a Machine, so with that observation, this paper presents here a comparison of the Republican organization with the Democratic machine as made by Governor Cox in a recent speech.

"The Republican 'organization' ran the spoils system. The Democratic 'machine' established the merit system through civil service law. The Republican 'organization' conducted and still favors the steam roller convention idea. The Democratic 'machine' brought about the passage of the state-wide primary law. The Republican 'organization' took the money from the state treasury, loaned it out to favorite banks and received reward in the form of campaign contributions. The Democratic 'machine,' on the other hand, established the competitive system; banks pay for the use of state funds and the interest derived is turned into the state treasury.

"The Republican 'organization' made a coalition with the liability insurance companies which fed like ghouls off the tragedies of industrial accidents. The Democratic 'machine' gave to the state the workmen's compensation law. The Republican 'organization' wrote over our penal institutions. He who enters here leaves all hope behind. They farmed convict labor out to manufacturers and the sweat of the convict's brow was coined in that way. The Democratic 'machine' holds hope out to every unfortunate, and seeks to benefit society by improving the convict.

"The prison system in this state is being adopted as the model for the whole country. The Republican 'organization' for years operated the state asylums and correctional institutions through 18 individual boards, and the scandals were ceaseless.

May 11 in American History.

1778—Washington and his "rebel" army Valley Forge renounced allegiance to King George III and took oath acknowledging the United States to be "free, independent and sovereign states."

1804—Cavalry combat at Yellow Tavern, six miles from Richmond. General J. E. B. Stuart's Confederate corps disputed the road to Richmond with General P. H. Sheridan's column. Stuart was mortally wounded.

ASTRONOMICAL EVENTS.

Evening stars: Mars, Venus, Saturn. Morning stars: Mercury, Jupiter. Four stars of constellation Corvus, forming a quadrangle, seen, due south, low about 8:30 p. m.

less and nauseating. The Democratic 'machine' merged 18 boards into one. Scandals have disappeared and economies, which amount to over $1,000,000, have been effected. The Republican 'organization' conducted the old method of having Finance Committees in 60 days' time write appropriation bills. The Democratic 'machine' installed the modern budget plan, and as the result over $900,000 was taken out of the 1914 appropriation bill.

"The Republican 'organization' carried the treasury into a perpetual and perennial deficit. The Democratic 'machine' has placed more money in the treasury than has ever been there before, and it carried the treasury to the end of the last fiscal year with more unencumbered cash than has ever been there. The end of the 1914 fiscal year will show even more splendid results, because in 1913 we had the extraordinary expenses of the flood and the bills had to be paid for the expenses growing out of the constitutional convention.

"Let the ledger account be opened. Let the contract be made as between the Republican 'organization' and the Democratic 'machine.' It is the results that count, and the people of Ohio, when the entry has been made, may be in very much the same mood that Lincoln was when he advised the critics of Grant to inculcate all the other Generals with the microbes of Grant's delinquencies."

It sounds like old times—real old times—to hear that "Foraker is attacking the President." This recalls the fact that Foraker assailed McKinley because that President held off the Spanish war until the United States army could be placed in condition. He assaulted Cleveland, he maligned Roosevelt, he abused Harrison and he sneered at Taft. Woodrow Wilson should give thanks that he is in good company.

There's one school in Ohio where the scholars are never tardy. It's at the Ohio Penitentiary where grown men who never had an hour's education are now being taught to read, write and figure. Little boys and girls will never understand the "grown-ups' impatience to get to the school house which they built themselves.

In Summit county a cruel test has been imposed upon the stand-patters by the returning Bull Mooseers. The prodigious want the nominations for Congress, State Senator and Representative and are waiting for the acceptance of their modest requisition.

Judge Brucker Withdraws From the Congressional Race

Judge Brucker, of Mansfield who has been a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress in the new 17th district, published his withdrawal from the race in the Mansfield papers of Saturday.

As Judge Brucker has been regarded as the strongest candidate in the field against Congressman Ashbrook, his withdrawal from the race is evidence that he foresees that the people of this intelligent district are settled in their minds as to whom they will elect to represent them in the halls of Congress.

It has come to be a pretty well known fact that the most intelligent constituencies of the country have a settled policy in regard to whom they elect as Members of Congress—that policy being to elect the men whose experience by long service equips them with the most capacity to render service of the greatest value to the constituency.

The Congressmen of the greatest experience who have intimate personal knowledge of the Government Departments at Washington, are the men who possess the greatest influence with those departments to secure favors for their constituents, and that fact is of greater importance to intelligent people than the system of passing the office around as a personal plum or favor to new men whose lack of experience make them woefully incompetent to render favors for their constituents. That is the reason the people of the South and New England keep their representatives in Congress for long successive terms.

For this very same reason the intelligent constituency of this district has practically signified its intention of re-electing Congressman William A. Ashbrook, whose superior knowledge of the Government departments at Washington and his activities in doing things for his constituents have become a household word.

The fact that William A. Ashbrook is at the present time the Secretary of the Democratic House caucus, which position he has held for the past four years, is evidence of the confidence and esteem in which he is held by his fellow Democratic members, and which largely accounts for his valuable influence at Washington.

The fact, too, that Congressman Ashbrook has always been such a popular candidate on his party ticket at all previous elections is an important factor in the minds of Democrats who are actuated by the wisdom that the most popular candidates are the ones that should be nominated. The friends and supporters of Mr. Ashbrook point with pride to the fact that he has always received greater majorities in his own county of Licking than any other candidate on the ticket, as comparison of the official figures at these elections will show.

The evidence looms up from all parts of the new 17th district that there is an unmistakable sentiment among a large majority of Democratic voters in favor of the re-nomination of Congressman Ashbrook.

On Second Thought

The inventory of the estate of "Pip" Durkee, who was killed in a runaway the other day, discloses the fact that Durkee's only assets were a bunch of keys and the left hind foot or a graveyard rabbit.

Buck Kilby's definition of the word, "peon," probably is as good as any. Buck says a "peon" is a man with an extravagant wife and a family of girls.

The average man's idea of the drug business is that it is the art of putting a little coloring matter in a bottle of water and selling it for a dollar.

No one attaches much importance to your opinion unless it happens to agree with his own.

It is only the man who has formed the habit of spending his evenings at home who classifies the initiation of a candidate for membership in his lodge as "excitement."

The people already are saying that the Hon. Abel Kline, who recently located in our town, is a "Ben Davis." In our community, when it is discovered that a good looking is worthless, he thereafter is known as a "Ben Davis."

These spring rains are fine for the crops but are tough on baseball.

Not every fellow who is yelling for war is willing to enlist.

Don't be too hasty in reaching a conclusion. What you hear may not have been true. What you see may not be the whole story.

If you are willing and able, the other fellow will probably let you do the work.

Young man, if you care at all for the good opinion of the parents, go home at a decent hour and don't keep "her" standing for 20 minutes at the front door.

The fact that George Washington never told a lie not only is a high tribute to the character of the Father of his Country, but it also indicates that he had Mrs. Washington pretty well cowed.

Something To Do.

Oh, ye who complain of the grind remember these words (which are true): The dreariest job one can find is looking for something to do. Sometimes, when my work seems a crime, and I'm sorely tempted to sob, I think of the long vanished time when I was out hunting a job. I walked eighty miles every day, and climbed forty thousand high stairs, and people would shoot and pelt me with instands and chairs.

And then, when the evening grew dark, I knew naught of comfort or ease; I made me a bed in the park, for supper chewed bark from the trees. I looked through the windows at men who lacked the oysters and squabs, and probably grumbled again because they were tired of their jobs. And I was out there in the rain, with nothing to eat but my shoe, and filled with a maddening pain because I had nothing to do. And now when I'm tempted to raise the grand halting sign of distress, I think of those sorrowful days, and then I feel better, I guess. I go at my labors again with energy vital and new, and say, as I toil in my den, "Thank God, I have something to do."

GIRLS IN BAD HEALTH.

Hundreds of girls go to work day after day, afflicted with some ailment peculiar to their sex, dragging one foot wearily after the other, working always with one eye on the clock and wishing for closing time to come. Every such girl should rely on Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore her to a normal healthy condition, then work will be a pleasure. For forty years this famous root and herb medicine has been pre-eminently successful in controlling the diseases of women. Why don't you try it?

WHEN CROUP COMES TREAT EXTERNALLY

The old system of dosing delicate little stomachs with nauseous drugs and opium syrups is wrong and harmful. Try the external treatment—Vick's "Vap-O-Rub." Croup and Pneumonia Salve. Just rub a little over throat and chest and cover with a warm flannel cloth. The warmth of the body releases vapors of Pine Tar, Menthol, Thymol, and Eucalyptol, that loosen the choking phlegm and ease the difficult breathing immediately. One application at bedtime insures a sound night's sleep. Vick's is better than internal medicines for all forms of cold troubles. Three sizes—25c, 50c, and $1.00.

German Student Well Grounded; American Boy Takes Up Too Many Subjects

By Dr. KARL E. BERTLING, Assistant Director of Amerika Institut in Berlin

THE CONTRAST BETWEEN THE AMERICAN BOY OF NINETEEN AND THE GERMAN OF THE SAME AGE IS REMARKABLE. THE GERMAN IS MATURED TO A FAR GREATER EXTENT. HE KNOWS HIS SCHOPENHAUER AND HIS NIETZSCHE, FOR INSTANCE, WHICH THE AMERICAN IS LIKELY TO BE ENTIRELY UNFAMILIAR WITH. HE HAS COMPLETED HIS HORACE AND HIS HOMER, READ SOPHOCLES AND ARISTOPHANES, MASTERED HIS HISTORY, FORCED HIMSELF THROUGH EUCLID AND CALCULUS. HE HAS NOT, AS THE AMERICAN HAS, STUDIED ECONOMICS OR SOCIOLOGY; THAT HE WILL GET AT THE UNIVERSITY, WHERE HE GOES TO SPECIALIZE.

But he is thoroughly well grounded, whereas the American boy has SIPPED AT MANY DRINKS AND DRUNK OF VERY FEW. He has too great a choice; that is one trouble. And he has a choice; that is worse. In America the boy is allowed to be the MASTER OF HIS MENTAL TRAINING when he should still be almost entirely under the guidance of older and wiser people. He takes a little French and drops it; he takes a little mathematics and drops it; he takes up one subject after another, barely gets an introduction to it, wears it out or assumes he knows it thoroughly and then lets it go to take a try at another subject.

THAT IS NOT PERMITTED FOR A MOMENT IN GERMANY. THE GERMAN BOY IS NOT ALLOWED FOR A SECOND TO THINK HE HAS FINISHED WITH A SUBJECT AND CAN LET IT GO. ALL THE TIME HE IS AT THE GYMNASIUM HE IS PLUGGING AWAY AT HIS VARIOUS SUBJECTS, AND BY THE TIME HE IS THROUGH ONE OF THEM HE IS THE MASTER OF ALL—IN THE SADDLE IN EVERYTHING. HE HAS ATTEMPTED TO RIDE. FOR THAT REASON I AM A TREMENDOUS ADMIRER OF THE THEORY OF INSTRUCTION AT ANNAPOLIS.

Wisdom from Washington

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, May 11.—[Special.]—June 1 was the date set for the adjournment of congress several months ago. Now it is July 1, which leaves eight weeks to pass the legislation that is pending in both houses. This could be done under certain conditions—impossible, of course—which would mean that senators and representatives refrain from talking, especially at any great length.

Two Big Questions.

The announcement that the president wanted congress to adjourn by the 1st of July was simultaneous with the beginning of the debate on repeal of the canal tolls in the senate. There was great satisfaction expressed in congress because so little time was afforded the members of the house of representatives to discuss the canal tolls question, and it has been asserted that more time would be given in the senate. The probabilities are that a long time will be given to the subject of canal tolls in the upper house.

Another question which will be the subject of long debate is the trusts. Attempts have been made to shorten consideration of the trust legislation by providing for the administration program in one bill. That will help, but when the measure gets into the senate much time will be occupied because so many senators want to get in their particular amendments.

Under almost any conditions the tolls and trust legislation would occupy most of the time before the proposed adjournment on the 1st of July. Besides, there are many appropriation bills yet to consider.

Philippines Go Overboard.

Under the proposed program for an early adjournment the legislation for the independence of the Philippines goes overboard. It is much to be doubted whether that legislation could have been passed even if it had been urged, but in view of the manner in which it has been allowed to sleep through one long special session and one long regular session the inference is that it is not to be strenuously pushed during this congress.

The War Specter.

Added to everything else that is to occupy the time of congress we must not forget the war specter. No matter if a certain kind of peace is patched up in Mexico there ought to be legislation which will enable the president to meet any contingencies that may arise if congress should adjourn. At this time there is an inclination among a great many people who have studied the situation in Mexico to go ahead and settle that question once for all, as they believe that the time is coming when the United States must intervene in Mexican affairs.

Tightening Up on the Rules.

There is a disposition to tighten up the rules of the senate so as to shut off dilatory procedure, such as constantly calling for a quorum. A senator who wants to delay proceedings will speak until he drives the members out of the senate and then have a quorum called, which will take considerable time. Only the other day the president proposed. Senator Clarke of Arkansas, refused to allow Senator McCumber to call for a quorum and followed it up by refusing to allow him to know the result of a vote. That was going to some extent in the senate.

The Best Parliamentarians.

"The greatest parliamentarians of the house," said Congressman Gardner of Massachusetts, "were Randall, Carlisle, Reed and Cannon, with Clark well up in the list. It is really a pleasure to follow the rulings of these men, and students of parliamentary law will not go far wrong if they adopt the reasoning which they gave in determining the meaning of the rules."

Senator Root's Position.

Senator Townsend of Michigan, in making a speech against the repeal of the Panama canal tolls, referred to Senator Root as "the greatest apostle of free tolls in either the United States or England." Possibly that is more distinction than Senator Root has claimed, but those who are opposing the repeal of the free tolls for American coastwise ships are aware that Senator Root has given them more trouble than any other man.

Should Be Popular.

Senator Bankhead of Alabama has proposed a commission to examine the subject of roads and the participation of the United States in constructing roads. It ought to be a popular commission and last a great many years, for the bill appropriates $1,000,000 to be expended by the commission. This commission might delay or prevent any action upon the Shackelford road bill which has passed the house and is now in the senate.

His sisters are the first to discover that a boy is worthless. After a time his father learns and reluctantly admits the truth, but the boy's mother never knows.

The greatest humiliation to which the average man can be subjected is to force him to admit that he was wrong.

The dark ages have no reference to those elderly spinsters who try to keep their ages dark.

KILLING OF FOREIGNERS BY MEXICANS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM.)
Washington, May 11.—Details of the killing of C. B. Hoadley, American, and G. E. Williams, British, by Mexicans at El Favor mine, near Guadalupe, were given in a dispatch from the British vice consul at Guadalupe, transmitted to the state department today through the British embassy.

The dispatch said that Hoadley and Williams were stabbed to death and horribly mutilated by enraged Mexicans, after the foreign staff in charge of the El Favor mines had endeavored to search laborers to trace silver bars stolen from the mines.

The foreigners were attacked while the search was in progress and Hoadley and Williams gave up their weapons believing they would be spared. Both were immediately stabbed to death. The vice consul said that all the other foreigners were placed in jail but later released.

of the world. But the Courts decided that he was dead, and the widow received her share of his estate.

The singer was married a second time, at Indianapolis, Ind., May 26, 1896, her husband being Zoltan F. Doerne, a Hungarian army officer and opera singer, to whom she had been engaged for two years, and whom she had first met at the Duchess of Manchester's, in London.

The match was not a happy one, and in January, 1904, she obtained a divorce from him in New York. In 1905 her marriage with Captain Joseph Rafael De La Mar, of New York and Idaho, was announced in "Le Menestrel," of Paris, but the report seems to have been incorrect.

But on July 29, 1909, she did become a bride for the third time, her husband being George W. Young, a New York banker, who survives her. Mr. Young had been divorced from his first wife the year before. They were married in London, with a brilliant ceremony in a church on Grosvenor square. The bride was given away by Mr. Carter, the Secretary of the American Embassy, and the best man was Frederick Townsend Martin. The wedding gifts included jewels from the American Ambassador and Mrs. Whitelaw Reid, the Dowager Duchess of Manchester, the Countess of Shrewsbury, Lady Lister-Kaye and many others.

Her last season at the Metropolitan in New York was interrupted at the beginning of 1910, by a severe attack of tonsillitis, to obtain relief from which she went to Florida and Cuba. Her health was restored, and she resumed her work upon the stage, but in February, 1912, suffered another breakdown, from neuritis, in Boston, where she was rehearsing "Tristan and Isolde."

From that she recovered, and in April last year she was heard again in New York in a song recital at Carnegie Hall. Then she went abroad.

On December 28 last, the Tasmanian on which she was a passenger, struck a reef at Torres Strait, and came near being lost. It was kept afloat, however, until it could be towed by the Japanese steamer Inahomaru to Thursday Island, here it arrived New Year's day.

Mme. Nordica suffered much from shock and exposure, though she was able to send telegraphic messages to her husband in New York, announcing her safety, and when Thursday Island was reached she was almost completely prostrated. January 10, Mr. Young received a dispatch reporting that she was suffering from pneumonia, and was in a critical condition.

He made preparations to hasten to her, but was stopped by a message saying that she was recovering and was out of danger. Some weeks ago she came to Batavia, and engaged passage for Genoa, Italy, where her husband was to meet her.

KEEP SQUARE CLEAN.

The public square on Sunday morning looked like a majority of the merchants deposited the sweepings from their stores in the street after closing hours Saturday night. Can't something be done to prevent the street from becoming a dumping ground? No person should be permitted to place trash in the street (except on clean up day) and a movement to clean the streets and then keep them clean would be hailed with delight by the people.

The service director can't be blamed for trash and sweepings put into the streets by the merchants. They ought to take care of their own trash.

Get a small bottle anyway, just to try it—Apply a little in the nostrils and instantly your clogged nose and stopped up air passages of the head will open; you will breathe freely; dullness and headache disappear. By morning the catarrh, cold-in-head or catarrhal sore throat will be gone.

End such misery now! Get the small bottle of "Ely's Cream Balm" at any drug store. This sweet, fragrant balm dissolves by the heat of the nostrils; penetrates and heals the inflamed, swollen membrane which lines the nose, head and throat; clears the air passages; stops nasty discharges and a feeling of cleanliness; soothing relief comes immediately.

Don't lay awake tonight struggling for breath, with head stuffed; nostrils closed, hawking and blowing; Catarrh or a cold, with its running nose, foul mucous droppings into the throat, and raw dryness is distressing—but truly needless.

Put your faith—just once—in "Ely's Cream Balm" and your cold or catarrh will surely disappear. F. D. Hall, 10 North Side Square, Newark, O.

LITTLE DISCUSSIONS
OF LOVE AND MARRIAGE
BY BARBARA BOYD

The Professional Enlivener at Family Meals.

"I have been meditating upon a new occupation," said the Bachelor Girl.

The Bachelor looked alarmed. "What's the use of getting ready for a new occupation," he expostulated, "when there is a very good, old-fashioned one right to your hand and you are pre-eminently fitted for it?"

"I wasn't thinking about it, especially for myself," explained the Bachelor Girl. "I was thinking it would be a new one for a man or woman seeking employment and who might like to make, in an agreeable way, living expenses, and in addition brighten family life a little."

"It has to do with family life, has it?" asked the Bachelor, interested.

"I got the idea from a line in that delightful book, 'The Friendly Road,' by David Grayson. He says, 'I'll warrant there are plenty of places where I could barter a chapter of Montaigne and a little good conversation for a first-rate supper.' It set me to thinking of a good many places I know, where a little good conversation at meals would wonderfully cheer up meal times. I know one family where everybody is grouchy at breakfast. The head of the family reads the newspaper and grumbles. He's probably thinking of the work awaiting him at the office. The mistress of the house pours out the coffee and sighs. She's probably contemplating the day's housekeeping. The children are sleepy and fretful. They probably have school tasks in mind. Now, let enter the professional breakfast enlivener, and presto, what a change! He tells a good business story or two. He touches on the morning news. He gives a new tip on housekeeping. He relates some interesting things about school. Every one begins to talk, and breakfast is finished with cheerfulness; and off they all bustle in great good humor to the day's work. Again in some families dinner is a funeral feast. Everybody is tired. Things have gone wrong. But the professional enlivener introduces topics that interests the family and gets them to thinking and talking about things outside themselves, and by the time the meal is over all are in the mood to enjoy a pleasant evening together. Now don't you think it would be a good idea? A person could get his table-board doing such work, if nothing more, and make a lot of nice friends as well."

The Bachelor regarded her quizzically. "You know you don't believe one word you are saying," he observed.

The Bachelor Girl laughed. "I see you are beginning to understand the peculiarities of my nature. What I do believe, however, is that there are a lot of dreary breakfast tables and luncheon tables and dinner tables where a chapter of Montaigne and a little good conversation would be most welcome. And it seems a pity that unless the aforesaid chapter of Montaigne and the food conversation are brought by an outsider it doesn't come. We all know how we chirp up at meals when company comes, and how we enjoy a meal in which there is good lively conversation instead of glum silence, or chidings or complaints or trifling gossip. And yet a good many of us never have this bright, lively conversation at meal times unless an outsider brings it in. And I think that not only would the professional meal-enlivener be a step toward providing it, but in the bargain, he would get the family where after a while he could be dispensed with and they could entertain themselves."

"I don't imagine any professional enlivener will be needed in our family," said the Bachelor.

"When it becomes a family affair," observed the Bachelor Girl, "every one has to do his part. It is not fair to let it all devolve on one. Nor could one member of the family do it. He wouldn't be invested with the halo of interest an outsider has!"

"A certain person as a member of a family would always be invested with a halo of interest for me," said the Bachelor.

But the Bachelor Girl was concealing a twinkling beverage in a thin glass and did not hear.

Chicago, May 11.—Although the wheat market showed some strength

today in sympathy with higher cables, prices later weakened on account of speculators' support. Selling ward the market sagged to below Saturday night's level.

Argentina reports that new crop arrivals were in poor condition tended to make corn market firm at a slight advance.

The oats market had but little change. Trading lacked volume.

Declining prices for hogs, carried provisions down. First sales varied from the same as Saturday night to 10 lower, with later transactions at a material further setback.

FIRE LADDIES ARRANGE FOR NEW QUARTERS

Believing that summer days will be unbearable at headquarters after the new improvements on the city building are completed, firemen stationed there are arranging for new quarters in the court in the rear of the present lounging room. A door will be cut into the court from the lounging room, allowing easy access to the apparatus room when alarms call the men out on the trucks. The court is fully protected from the sun's rays and the open door will allow a good circulation of air. One of the objections to the plans was that the plate glass windows provided for the entire west front from the apparatus room to the main street corner, would make the firemen's sitting room a mighty hot place when the rays of the western sun got a full sweep at the place.

DISAGREEMENT OF CONFEDERATE VETS OVER BATTLE FLAG

Columbus, May 11.—A story of disagreement within the ranks of the confederate veterans of America over the return of the battle flag of the 76th Ohio Volunteers infantry, captured in the battle of Ridgeland, Ga., Nov. 27, 1863, was brought by George F. Burba, secretary to Governor Cox on his return today from Jacksonville, Fla., where the flag was turned over to a party of Ohio veterans last week. Veterans of the first Arkansas Infantry, which captured the flag, wanted to bring the flag to Ohio and present it here. Consequently they refused to participate in the ceremony at Jacksonville. They announced they would attempt to get an appropriation from the Arkansas legislature to come to Columbus on the anniversary of the battle next November, take the flag from the relic room and re-enact the presentation.

The flag was sent from Jacksonville by express and is expected to arrive here today. It will be taken to the relic room about special ceremony. Most members of the Ohio party of veterans remained at Chattanooga, where they visited Chickamauga Park.

"The past is dead," exclaimed the poet. "Not half so dead as some people would like it to be," said the philosopher.

"Some marry for love and some for money," says the cynical Bachelor. "Others split the difference and marry for love of money."

Discriminating Care At Every Step, the Secret of Board of Trade's Success

The plan of campaign evolved by the Board of Trade executive committee, for the raising of a factory fund, which is now in full operation in all parts of the city, is one that has not, from the beginning, depended upon the "hip, hip, hurrah" methods of attaining success. It is too often the case that such a course develops an enthusiasm that is for a short time efficient, but just as quickly dwindles away as it has been aroused, the result being, an exhausted apathy or anti-climax that leaves every one in a worse state of mind, and the object sought either imperfectly gained or not further from accomplishment than before it began.

In direct contrast has been the method pursued by the present Board of Trade. The entire plan was the result of careful consideration. Every detail was discussed from every view point before being incorporated as an essential part. Daily meetings have been held for weeks, each step was the subject of discriminating investigation, before it was adopted and many were finally cast with the discard.

At last the plan was announced to the public. Each detail was explained and nothing was held back.

that had to do with the method to be pursued for Newark's industrial development.

This taking of the public into the confidence of those having the work in hand, instantly struck a popular chord. The aim was seen to be for the general good, the benefits to be derived applicable to each individual. It was not long until this general approval took the form of concrete endorsement by various organizations of men in every line of activity, labor, fraternal, religious and other bodies having different direct objects, but agreed upon the Board of Trade's idea for industrial betterment.

These endorsements gave the movement a tremendous impetus and the work of organization was taken up and completed not with great haste but with extreme care to obtain the greatest efficiency.

This has been the element that has made possible the success which is now assured, and in which all who have co-operated will share.

LIEUT. MAIGNE ARRESTED.

Finances of State Now Handled On a Scientific Basis

Columbus, Ohio, May 11.—After five years of endeavor the accounting and financing system of the state of Ohio is now upon a scientific business basis.

Ever since the regime of former State Treasurer D. Staley Creamer the books of the treasury have been balanced at the end of each day's business and every morning a statement of condition is posted in the office of the Governor by Treasurer of State Brennan giving the details of the commonwealth's finances.

At the request of Auditor of State A. V. Donahy and Treasurer Brennan the General Assembly at the special session provided needed legislation covering the auditing and accounting departments.

As a result the Auditor, for the first time in the history of the state, is able to issue a statement of the balances in each department, board and commission under the state government, showing to the penny just how much remains in each appropriation or detailed function.

In the past the State Auditor struck a balance only at the end of the fiscal year. This practice prevailed because the department vouchers were sent broadcast to the state's creditors instead of the auditor's official warrant.

Under the new system the vouchers go to the auditor for examination and approval, after which a warrant on the treasury is mailed to the person entitled to it. Thus there are no outstanding vouchers any more, and the auditor can tell each night precisely how much money is left in each fund.

At the end of every month a statement of conditions is sent to each departmental head and his account with the treasury in order that he may be advised of its condition and govern his expenses accordingly. The auditor in turn gets a general statement of all funds, thus being able to keep his finger on the pulse of the state's finances.

When the books were closed Saturday, April 30, there was a cash balance of $5,369,589.77 in the state treasury, this being an amount greater by $1,947,373.37 than on the same date last year.

This is all the more remarkable because through the exigencies created by the flood and other extraordinary demands more than $3,000,000 more was appropriated than ever before, it is said. In issuing this first statement under the new system, Auditor Donahy admitted that he felt some pride in its workings and made the prediction that this system should and will stand for economy in the financial operations of the state, for each officer or board will know exactly how much there is left in the fund for salaries, traveling expenses, office charges and the like and will be able to "cut his cloth accordingly."

OLD ROSEBUD WON THE DERBY

Old Rosebud, an odds-on favorite with the fourth running of the historic Kentucky Derby at Churchill Downs at Louisville Saturday afternoon, pulling up nearly five lengths ahead of his field. Over 40,000 spectators witnessed the event.

Nearly $300,000 was bet through the pari-mutuel machines. The running of the derby was postponed nearly 35 minutes in order to allow the public to wager. When the field was sent away there were thousands clamoring to the men in the machines to accept their money.

As the race was not run until nearly 7 o'clock, society stayed at the clubhouse for dinner, and tangoed during the evening.

THOUSANDS

At City Hall, whose columns and portico were draped in black the cortege halted while Mayor Mitchell placed upon a caisson a wreath of orchids, the city's tribute. As he did so the bluejackets stood at present arms and 800 school children sang: "Nearer My God To Thee."

Gathered at the City Hall were perhaps 10,000 spectators. From there the route lay north across Manhattan Bridge to Brooklyn and the navy yard. The ceremonies as arranged, were simple and comparatively brief. A hymn by the battleship band, an invocation by Chaplain Wm. G. Cassard of Annapolis, then President Wilson's address.

Prayers by Rabbi Stephen S. Wise and Father John P. Chadwick, chaplain of the Maine. The valleys fired by a detachment of marines from the Texas and "Taps" by a bugler concluded the program.

After the invocation by Chaplain Cassard at the Navy Yard, Secretary Daniels turned to the president and said:

"Mr. President, I have the solemn honor to report to you as commander in chief of the United States navy, the names of the fifteen sailors and four marines who recently, at Vera Cruz, sealed with their blood their devotion to the flag of their country. All were in the prime of vigorous young manhood. Of the nineteen who answered their last roll call with a cheerful 'aye, aye, aye,' thirteen were 22 or under. The oldest was 36, the youngest 19. Their average age was but a little over 22. They were young and suddenly beheld life's morn decline. They gave not only what they were, but what they hoped to be."

"I hand you sir, the names of these heroes recorded high on the national roll of honor, that they may be presented to the archives of our republic. Their services will be held in lasting remembrance by a grateful people."

It was just 10:50 when the procession reached the navy yard. President Wilson, Secretary Daniels, Governor Glynn and the others on the president's stand stood bareheaded while the coffin was taken from the caisson and placed in a line in front of the stand. The transfer occurred fifteen minutes.

Ten thousand spectators with bare heads, stood massed about the four sides of the square. Several thousand more were gathered on neighboring roofs. The air was so still that the flag half way down the tall staff in the middle of the parade ground hung limp.

The heat was oppressive, and one of the marines from the Wyoming fainted and was dragged out of the front rank by a captain.

When all the coffins were in place the sailors holding the crowd back at the edge of the square gave way and several thousand persons rushed into the enclosure. The silence that had overhung the parade ground was broken for the first time when the band began to play softly "Nearer My God, To Thee." When the hymn was finished Chaplain Cassard began to read the opening

Concrete Vault FOR CITY RECORDS

The vault will provide ample room for the books and records of the water works and service departments which it is important to protect from fire. The work on the building is progressing rapidly.
